'UNICEF assists countries in collecting and analysing data in order to fill data gaps for monitoring the situation of children and women through its international household survey programme, the Multiple Indicator Cluster Surveys (MICS).'

To: Institutions and Individual Contractors

Education: University degree in Social Sciences, Demography, Statistics, Epidemiology or any other related technical field is required.

Skills and Experience: At least three to five years of experience in management of quantitative household surveys (prior MICS or Demographic and Health Survey (DHS) coordination experience highly desirable);

Assignment: Under the overall supervision of the M&E Specialist the UNICEF MICS Consultant (UMC) has responsibility for supporting and providing guidance and technical assistance to the UNICEF BELIZE Office and the Statistical Institute of Belize analysis of the MICS data and completion of the MICS Final Report, ensuring that MICS protocols are being followed at all times. The UMC will maintain effective communication between the UNICEF CO and the implementing partner, responding promptly to MICS related needs and issues as they arise.

Please find attached Vacancy Announcement – MICS Household Survey Consultant.

Closing date of submitting applications is 11th September, 2016.